

I am a big fan of satellite radio because for once it is a product designed for the consumer by providing choice, not commercialism. Also, the ability for consumers to receive traffic and weather in the manner that it is delivered through satellite radio is a technological blessing. Please stand up for what is right for the CONSUMER and reject NABs petition 04-160.
Respectfully submitted